ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I am a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer, subject to the approval of the Republicans of Highland County.

CHAS. D. JOHNSON.

I am a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, subject to the approval of the Republicans of Highland County.

CAREY A. LONG.

We are authorized to announce that John Q. Roads is a candidate for re-nomination as County Auditor subject to the decision of the Republican County convention.

We are authorized to announce that C. N. Carey is a candidate for re-nomination as County Commissioner subject to the decision of the Republican County convention.

The National Democratic Committee at a meeting in Chicago last Saturday selected the following officers: Chairman, Norman E. Marks, of Buffalo, N. Y.; L. P. Hall, of Nebraska, Vice-Chairman; Urey Woodson, Kentucky, Secretary; C. N. Haskell, Oklahoma, Treasurer. These are the men who will have active charge of the presidential campaign for the Democratic party. There was no opposition to any of them, as they were Col. Bryan's personal choice.

The announcement of the candidacy of John Q. Roads for re-nomination as county auditor appears in another column of this paper. Mr. Roads is well known to the people of Hillsboro and Highland county and it is hardly necessary to say anything in regard to his qualifications for this important office. The auditor's office is one of the most important and difficult offices in the county to fill. Mr. Roads has performed the duties of this office in a capable, efficient and businesslike manner. A business man is needed in this office and he is known to every one as a business man of ability and honesty. Upon his record in the past three years in the office Mr. Roads comes to the Republicans of this county asking a re-nomination at their hands. There is no question but that if he is re-nominated and elected he will give to the people the same honest and efficient management of the office that has marked its conduct in the past three years.

The condition of many of the pikes in this county is very bad. Often they are worse than mud roads being full of ruts and mud holes. The Chillicothe pike for about seven or eight miles out of town is hardly fit for travel in any kind of weather. It is all cut to pieces, is full of holes and ruts and the hills are badly washed. A great deal of money is spent on the pikes in this county each year but from the condition they are in and about all the good it does, the money might just as well be thrown in a sewer. The present system has been proven a failure and should be discarded. The wear and tear on vehicles, the extra horses needed in order to haul heavy loads over bad roads is a big expense to the farmer and the sooner that he becomes aware that he can not afford to be without good pikes the better it will be for him. The farmers are now paying enough to have good roads over the entire county and instead have roads that are awful. They are also paying out large sums of money for repair of vehicles and for new ones which they could save if they had good roads. Fewer horses would be needed and they would last longer. Let the farmers demand that they have good roads and see that this demand is granted. You pay for them, why not have them.

C. N. Carey asks for a re-nomination as county commissioner by the Republican party in Highland county. Mr. Carey is a resident of Penn township and by occupation a farmer. He had proved himself a good, honest and efficient business man in the conduct of his private affairs before elected to the office of commissioner. He has exercised the same good judgment and careful consideration in the conduct of the county's business that made him a successful business man. There has been no man in the commissioner's office in years that has given more time and thought to the duties of the office and has had a more thorough knowledge of its details than Mr. Carey. No man has a right to seek re-nomination to any office save on the record he has made as a public official. Mr. Carey's record as a public official is open for inspection and should recommend him to the people of this county. His private, business and official life stamp him as a man of honor and integrity, capable and faithful in the discharge of every duty he is called upon to perform.

Respect for Courts.

The great respect that the Democratic party has for the dignity and honor of the courts is clearly shown by the statements in last week's Gazette. The following are fair samples:

"The Standard Oil Co. secured a verdict reversing the decision of Judge Landis, who found the company guilty of accepting rebates from a railroad and fined it $29,240,000. No one ever expected the Standard would have to pay the fine if it promised to assist the Republicans this fall.

"It would never do to force the Standard Oil Co. to pay a fine just as a national campaign is beginning. A chicken thief would have to settle or go to jail.

"If the Standard Oil Co. pays any of the fines assessed against it, the payment will be in the shape of a donation to the Republican campaign corruption fund."

Great indeed must be the respect of the Gazette for the honor and dignity of our courts, to state that one of the highest judicial tribunals in our country was induced to hand down a decision in favor of any man or group of men to secure contributions to the Republican campaign fund. No grosser insult could possibly be paid to the courts than is contained in these editorials. While we are not always satisfied with decisions rendered by courts we do not think that the court is bought to render a certain decision simply because it does not agree with us. There is absolutely no ground for the charges made by the Gazette and it is simply an endeavor to besmirch the character and standing of our courts in the hope of securing a few votes for Bryan.

Cincinnati Honors Taft.

The people of Cincinnati Tuesday laid aside political differences and united to do honor to their famous son, Hon. Wm. H. Taft. People irrespective of political affiliations joined in the great reception tendered him when he was formally notified of his nomination for President. And Cincinnati has set a new high water mark for future notifications.

The Queen City was certainly dressed in gala attire and nothing left undone to make the day one never to be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance.

Gorgeous and beautiful decorations were in evidence in all parts of the city and each citizen seemed to vie with his neighbor in an endeavor to outdo him. From dawn until late at night the candidate received the plaudits of admiring thousands and the festivities were closed with a grand fire work display at night.

Nature joined with his citizens and admirers who had come from a distance to do him honor and there was not a single thing to mar the beauty and impressiveness of the occasion. Cincinnati paid honor to her distinguished son as only Cincinnati can.

Taft's Speech.

The speech of Judge Taft, in which he formally accepts the nomination for president on the Republican ticket, appears in another column of this paper.

It is a clear and logical presentation of the position of the Republican party and its candidate on the great questions before the American people. There is no effort on the part of Mr. Taft to curry favor with any class or body of men, there is no effort to evade any question for fear of loss of support, and all who read the speech will have no trouble in telling exactly where the Republican candidate stands.

The speech, while quite lengthy, will well repay all who read it. It is not simply a collection of words, but a fair and fearless presentation of the position of the Republican party which must carry weight with all who read it.

The great ability of Mr. Taft and his clear grasp of the great public questions of the day was never more clearly demonstrated than in this speech. All doubt that may have existed in the minds of any as to the wisdom of selecting him as our candidate for President, will now surely be removed.
